QUESTION 20:
Thinking more about K-12 education in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[STUDENT BASED FUNDING FORMULA] Reforming education funding so money follows the child. Current funding relies on a policy guaranteeing that school districts receive the same state funding year-to-year, regardless of enrollment fluctuations. Under this reform, state funding would be based on the number of students each school serves.

QUESTION 20:
Thinking more about K-12 education in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[STUDENT BASED FUNDING FORMULA] Reforming education funding so money follows the child. Current funding relies on a policy guaranteeing that school districts receive the same state funding year-to-year, regardless of enrollment fluctuations. Under this reform, state funding would be based on the number of students each school serves.

QUESTION 25:
Thinking more about economic competitiveness in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[PRIORITIZE TAX RELIEF] Redirecting the nearly $2 billion a year Pennsylvania spends on subsidies to selected companies, and using that money to speed up the scheduled reduction in the Corporate Net Income Tax, a tax on business profits. Today those subsidies go to companies chosen by state officials, while every other business in Pennsylvania pays the full rate.

QUESTION 25:
Thinking more about economic competitiveness in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[PRIORITIZE TAX RELIEF] Redirecting the nearly $2 billion a year Pennsylvania spends on subsidies to selected companies, and using that money to speed up the scheduled reduction in the Corporate Net Income Tax, a tax on business profits. Today those subsidies go to companies chosen by state officials, while every other business in Pennsylvania pays the full rate.

QUESTION 35:
Thinking more about energy issues in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[NET METERING REFORM] Requiring utilities to pay homeowners and businesses with solar panels or small windmills the wholesale price for extra electricity they send back to the grid. They now receive the higher retail price, which also covers the cost of the poles and wires they do not maintain.

QUESTION 39:
Thinking some more about worker welfare in Pennsylvania, please indicate whether you support or oppose the following work requirements:

Medicaid is a taxpayer funded welfare program providing health care to nearly one-in-four Pennsylvanians. A new law aims to empower healthy adults to improve their well-being by requiring them to work, seek employment, or participate in education or training to receive benefits. Senior citizens, individuals with disabilities, parents with young children, and pregnant women would be exempt from this requirement, ensuring the most vulnerable continue to receive necessary support.

Do you generally support or oppose these work requirements?

QUESTION 39:
Thinking some more about worker welfare in Pennsylvania, please indicate whether you support or oppose the following work requirements:

Medicaid is a taxpayer funded welfare program providing health care to nearly one-in-four Pennsylvanians. A new law aims to empower healthy adults to improve their well-being by requiring them to work, seek employment, or participate in education or training to receive benefits. Senior citizens, individuals with disabilities, parents with young children, and pregnant women would be exempt from this requirement, ensuring the most vulnerable continue to receive necessary support.

Do you generally support or oppose these work requirements?

QUESTION 40:
Thinking some more about worker welfare in Pennsylvania, please indicate whether you support or oppose the following work requirements:

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program provides taxpayer funded food assistance to low-income Pennsylvanians. A new law aims to empower healthy adults who receive food stamps by encouraging them to work, seek employment, or participate in education or training to continue receiving benefits. This initiative fosters self-sufficiency and strengthens our workforce, while ensuring that senior citizens, individuals with disabilities, parents with young children, and pregnant women continue to receive the support they need.

Do you generally support or oppose these work requirements?

QUESTION 45:
Thinking more about worker welfare in Pennsylvania, below is a series of different ideas and proposals people are talking about in Pennsylvania. After you read each one, please indicate if you support or oppose that proposal.

[END PREVAILING WAGE AND PROJECT LABOR AGREEMENT MANDATES] Ending prevailing wage and project labor agreement mandates. These rules require higher wages and often union-only labor on government construction, which raises the cost of roads, schools and public buildings.

QUESTION 51:
Thinking about the proposals you read about in this survey, if a candidate for the state legislature supported these kinds of reforms, would that make you more likely or less likely to vote for that candidate, or would it not make much difference?
